

Q. (No Microphone.)

COLIN MONTGOMERIE: It was, yeah, fine, fine. I enjoy playing with Bernhard. You know if you're equal him, you have half a chance and I did that with a good putt on the last. We both shot 65 there today, so obviously playing well and so is he. But the field have got a few birdies coming home and then 14, 15 and 18, so I didn't envision to be within four or five of the lead. So at least I've made a positive move in the right direction anyway because I've been injured most of this year. It's difficult to play catch-up, but today was a good day.

Q. Fun to be in the hunt?

COLIN MONTGOMERIE: Yes, yes, of course. That's why we're here.
