

BOEING CLASSIC

DAY TWO HIGHLIGHTS

Today's focus of the Boeing Classic was on a handful of events that have become a permanent part of the weekly Tournament schedule. Executive Women's Day connects local business leaders for a day of networking, development and discussion. Congresswomen Suzan DelBene was the Keynote. The event also featured a panel discussion, led by entrepreneur Jen Mueller/Talk Sporty To Me, with Sue Anderson, President/Virginia Mason Medical Center, Jennifer Cohen, Director of Athletics/University of Washington, Katherine Cheng/Head of Global Corporate Citizenship and Community Relations/Expedia and Jenette Ramos, Vice President and General Manager Fabrication/Boeing Commercial Airplanes.

The afternoon started with the Emirates Youth Clinic, led by Larry Mize, giving children the opportunity to learn tips from a PGA TOUR Champions Professional. The day concluded with the Adaptive Golf Clinic, giving players of differing physical abilities a chance to improve their golf games and make it more enjoyable.

PRESS CONFERENCES LINED UP FOR WEDNESDAY
